Marking a Century-Celebrating Residents Turning 100 Years Young

July 13, 2010

(Brockton, MA)

On Thursday, June 24th, St. Joseph Manor held a Century Party Celebration to honor our residents who reached the milestone of 100 years young! Our guests of honor were, Margaret Dadek, 100, Annie Fossella, 102 and Mary Clarke, 103.

Our celebration included live entertainment by Russ Peterson and citations and proclamations were bestowed upon our honorees by staff from the following offices; Congressman Stephen Lynch, Representative Christine Cananvan and Mayor Linda Balzotti. Citations were also presented from the office of Senator Thomas Kennedy.

The day was filled with laughter and smiles as family members of the honorees and residents gathered to sing Happy Birthday and enjoy the traditional birthday cake and ice cream.

Residents enjoy many fun-filled moments such as with events seven days a week, thanks to the efforts of two full-time recreation employees, and many devoted volunteers.

St. Joseph Manor is a non-profit nursing home and skilled care facility with 118 beds. A majority of the resident rooms at St. Joseph Manor are private. Also available is our Mater Dei Adult Day Health Program with a 60 client a day capability.
