Everyone from the age of two to eighty-two came out to support St. Joseph Manor for a fun-filled morning of bowling and laughter! Through our generous bowlers, sponsors and raffles we raised substantial funds to support programs and services for our 118 residents and 60 adult day health clients.

“Our inaugural Bowl-A-Thon has given us an opportunity to provide a family-friendly event to the community, as well as raise much needed funds to support our 118 residents and 60 adult day health clients” stated, Christopher Kenney, CEO of St. Joseph Manor. “Our home serves those in need regardless of their financial situation and our commitment to these residents’ remains strong and unwavering. We are continually working to raise funds through fundraising efforts such as the Bowl-A-Thon.”
